Introduction

Purpose
In fall 2020, the Union Square Business Improvement District (USBID) convened an Economic & Recovery Task Force, comprised of key public and private sector partners, to assist with the development of near-term economic recovery strategies and actions for the district and its stakeholders.

In these uncertain social and economic times, the Union Square BID faces many critical questions, such as:

- What are specific strategies and actions that can be undertaken to help businesses survive in the coming months?
- What near-term actions can be done to leverage the outdoor space of Union Square and other public realm spaces?
- What do the market realities and opportunities signal for long-term economic success and resiliency?
- What does a more inclusive and equitable economic recovery look like?
- With rapid changes impacting the retail, hospitality, and office sectors, what is the future vision for Union Square? Is there opportunity to envision a more mixed-use town center for the city, that attracts more locals as well as visitors?
- What can the USBID do now to optimize its time and resources to support a prosperous and healthy Union Square district?

Process
The Economic & Recovery Task Force met three times over the course of September and October 2020 and included the following members: Alan Jacobson, J2 Design; Katelyn Joyce, J2 Design; Michael Berne, MJB Consulting; Julie Taylor, Colliers; Rick Laubscher, Market Street Railway; Russell D. Keil Jr., The Keil Companies; Cassandra Costello, SF Travel Association; Rodney Fong, SF Chamber of Commerce; Chhavi Sahni, Golden Gate Restaurant Association; Kelly Powers, Hotel Council; Lisa Pagan, OEWD; Greg Backstorm; The Curran; Erik Murray, Oak Investment Funds; Joaquin Torres, OEWD; Lee Hepner, Office of Aaron Peskin; Matthew Coleman, Harry Winston; Chris Corgas, OEWD.
The Economic & Recovery Task Force was supported by Karin Flood, USBID Executive Director; Eva Schouten, USBID Intern; and David Perry, David Perry & Associates.

Chris Beynon, AICP, Vice President and Principal at MIG, Inc. facilitated and recorded the meetings.

Conducted via interactive online Zoom sessions, the task force process consisted of the following:

- Session #1: Background, Context, and Ideas, during which participants discussed the state of Union Square, current impacts and needs, and potential ideas and actions for near-term recovery.

- Session #2: Preliminary Actions and Strategies, during which participants reviewed the draft ideas developed following Session #1 and expanded upon six key categories for near-term economic recovery, including:
  1. Activate Union Square Park
  2. Activate Streets, Alley and Other Places
  3. Celebrate the Holidays
  4. Install Murals, Art, and Signage
  5. Support Restaurants, Bars and Entertainment
  6. Bolster Communications, Brand and Messaging

In addition, Rodney Fong presented details on the City and County of San Francisco’s Economic Recovery Task Force Report.

- Session #3: Draft Strategic Recovery Plan, during which participants discussed and refined actions, responsibilities, funding opportunities and implementation strategies, with a focus on how to Activate Union Square Park. Ted Egan, Chief Economist of the City and County of San Francisco, also presented on the citywide State of the San Francisco Economy.

The Task Force agreed that activating Union Square Park with a variety of near-term strategies – ranging from large-scale formal events to smaller-scale activities to ensuring easy access to the area – is the most critical path to attract visitors, cultivate a sense of destination, and re-invigorate the Union Square District’s economy. Finally, given overall economic uncertainty and the dynamic nature of the recovery process over the coming few months, the group determined that it should reconvene in early 2021 to re-assess the state of the Union Square District and potential actions moving forward.
Strategies and Actions

The following matrix outlines the near-term economic recovery strategies and actions for Union Square. Key elements include:

- Action: The specific task or activity to execute.
- Category: The sector(s) of industry in which the action most applies or supports.
- Timeframe: The timing for implementing and/or completing an action.
- Lead Responsibility/Supporting Responsibility: The parties who are tasked with executing the action.
- Funding/Resources: Identification of money and/or in-kind staffing and other resources to support implementation of an action.

Note: following the matrix, wall graphics recordings of each session are included in the Appendix, as well as the PowerPoint presentations from each of the sessions.

Office

- 12 mil sq. ft. of office, 10% of City office space

- Have requested data from City about vacancy and rates
- Pre-COVID rates for office ranged from $35/sq ft. to $100/sq ft. In recent negotiations landlords did not want to go below $50 (for space originally at $65/70). Some are offering reduced or free rent for the next 2-3 years.
- State has advised that only essential workers come into work and that telecommuting is highly encouraged.
Restaurants, Bars and Entertainment

- Outdoor dining includes: John’s Grill, Tad’s Steak House, E & O, Morton’s, Pinecrest Restaurant, Café de la Presse, Amorino Gelato, 165 Café.
- Farrallon closed during COVID – owner says “Union Square has lost its luster”

Residential

- Union Square has approximately 2000 residential units
- Residents live at condos at 331 Grant, 1 Powell and 181 O’Farrell. There are also a number of SROs throughout the district.
- We need more residential to make us more resilient!

ECONOMIC RECOVERY TASK FORCE REPORT
Policy Recommendations

- Local Economic Stimulus - Explore policies and investments that encourage economic development and activity in San Francisco, such as funding public infrastructure projects, streamlining permitting processes, advocacy for state and federal resources, and more

- Job Connections - Facilitate and improve connection to jobs and explore programs that hire local workers

- Promote Safe Reopening - Provide clear and accessible information to businesses and workers on reopening requirements and provide tools and strategies to keep workers, customers, and residents safe

- Preserve Operations and Lessen Regulatory Burdens - Create flexibility for businesses to operate and consider reducing or eliminating regulatory burdens
Policy Recommendations

- Pursue Economic Justice - Narrow the wealth gap and bridge the digital divide for low-income residents and communities of color

- Invest in Housing - Incentivize the construction of affordable housing, an immediate and long-term need

- Meet the Basic Needs of the Vulnerable - Ensure San Franciscans have access to food, shelter, mental health, and other services

- Imagine and Build Stronger Neighborhoods - Activate and draw upon San Francisco’s unique neighborhood and cultural assets
Immediate Actions

Extending Shared Spaces: Building off of the early successes of the Shared Spaces program, the City will work to make elements of the program permanent. The existing Shared Spaces program will continue throughout the duration of the local emergency in San Francisco, which remains in effect, and the new effort will incorporate lessons learned and ensure that the program’s benefits to businesses and the community continue throughout San Francisco’s long-term recovery and beyond.

Economic Support for Small Business Reopenings: The City will provide $1.6 million in grants and design services to support neighborhood businesses that need to purchase furniture and fixtures and reconfigure space in order to meet health requirements for operating. This funding will come by re-purposing grant funding from the SF Shines program, which normally gives grants to businesses for facade improvements. Additionally, the City will provide $200,000 for businesses that need legal support and assistance negotiating their leases.
Immediate Actions

Basic Income Pilot for Artists: San Francisco is directing nearly $6 million in funding for artists, teaching artists, arts organizations, and cultural workers, including a new universal basic income pilot program for San Francisco artists. The UBI program will provide up to 130 artists with $1,000 a month for at least six months starting early next year. The Arts Commission will also provide arts organizations with funding to reopen safely and will fund the creation of an online Arts Hub, which will serve as a one-stop-shop for artists and organizations looking for financial assistance, professional networking, and employment opportunities. Next week, the Arts Commission will open four other grant programs for artists, arts organizations, and cultural facilities. The Office of Economic and Workforce Development will make $265,000 available to fund artists to paint murals with a public health theme on boarded up businesses and deploy performance artists to promote COVID-safe behaviors in high foot traffic areas.
Immediate Actions

Fee and Tax Waivers for Closed Businesses: San Francisco is continuing its support for businesses that have been unable to open due to COVID, and will be providing an additional fee and tax waiver for businesses that remain closed -- including entertainment, arts, and nightlife venues.

Defer Impact Fee Collection: In addition to deferring fee collection from businesses, the City will defer collection of impact fees on development projects to help promote housing construction in San Francisco. This will help advance the City’s goals of creating more housing and making San Francisco a more affordable place to live, while also promoting local job creation.

Grants for Cultural Districts: The Cultural Districts Community Building and Impact program will award $265,000 to each legislatively approved Cultural District working to preserve, strengthen, and promote their cultural communities. The funds will primarily be utilized to celebrate culture, support community resilience in light of COVID-19, provide direct resources, and stabilize the identity of the District.

The unusual drop in sales tax, the lack of growth in online retail, and the unusually steep decline in the rental housing market all point to increased out-migration, at least temporarily.

The association of large rent declines in cities with many resident tech workers suggests that it is high-wage workers – who have generally not lost their jobs – as opposed to low-wage workers who have.

If this is true, San Francisco’s economic recovery does not merely hinge on virus abatement, a recovery in consumer spending, and renewed confidence in travel, taking transit, and congregating in large groups. These are challenges that face every city, to various degrees.

The pace of the city’s recovery will also depend on decisions by workers and businesses about the cost and value of San Francisco office space, and Bay Area housing, compared to alternative cities.

255 spaces are monitored in the prime high streets of the Union Square district.

Available Spaces:
- Direct: 77
- Sublease: 2

Direct: 275,685 sq ft
Sublease: 16,449 sq ft
Total Available: 292,134 sq ft

In addition to the 77 spaces available and actively being marketed for direct or sublease, there are an additional 21 properties that could be made available. These properties are being marketed for a direct deal as the tenant has expressed interest in vacating or the lease is expiring soon. This brings our total Union Square ground floor availability to 35.86% of our inventory.
Market News

• Availability is 35.86% including direct (28.00%), sublease (1.28%), and shadow space (6.58%) (Q1-2021)

• To get space leased, landlords are embracing rent reductions and offering creative deal structures
  - Variable rent
  - Short term deals
  - Termination rights
  - TI allowances and increased brokerage fees

• Leasing activity is picking up
  - Tours are challenged by lack of foot traffic
  - Prospective tenants are discouraged by urban blight and crime

• Positive news must be broadcast
  - Which retailers ARE doing business? Where are sales being generated?
  - Visitor statistics, the return of Cable Car ridership and MUNI underground, SFO debarkations
  - Hotel re openings and bookings

• Shoppers and tourists need to be welcomed and encouraged to return downtown
  - Incentives such as free parking, or a sales tax holiday would drive traffic back to Union Square
